We Will Mount Up With Wings Like Eagles . . .

M is for the mountains. One can hardly think of Montreat without thinking of the mountains. You have known their beauty in all seasons; you have known their majesty, their awesomeness, their protection.

"I look to the mountains; where will my help come from? My help will come from the Lord, who made heaven and earth." Ps. 121:1-2

O is for obedience. No one can trust God who does not obey God. Obedience is the root of confidence. "Has the Lord as much delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices as in obeying the voices of the Lord? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice." I Sam. 15:22

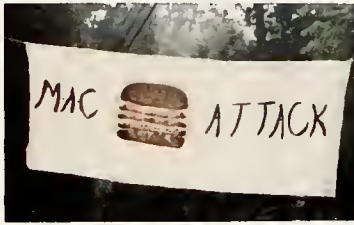

N is for new — new friends, new experiences, new insights, new opportunities.
“He taught me to sing a new song, a song of praise to our God.” Ps. 40:30

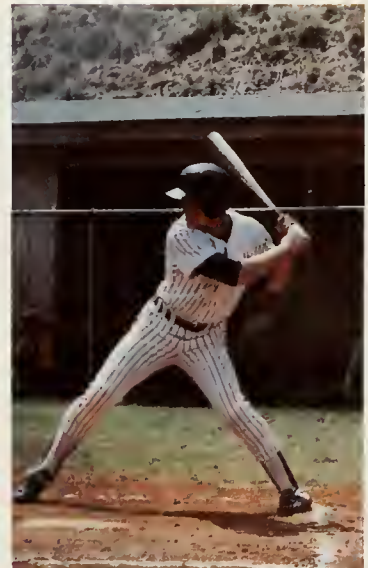

Tis for training. Montreat-Anderson sees in each new student the potential of a full-blown bloom, the maturing of a plant that has reached maturity and productiveness. The faculty have been the ones who have carefully and lovingly cultivated the field.

"Remember your leaders, who spoke the word of God to you. Consider the outcome of their way . . . and imitate their way." Heb. 13:7-8

R is for redemption. We strive to be redemptive. When you have failed or have fallen, we have tried to help you overcome. "Go and do likewise." "My little children, I am telling you this so that you will stay away from sin. But if you sin, there is someone to plead for you before the Father. His name is Jesus ..." I Jn. 2:1

E is for enjoyment. God wants us to be happy, to enjoy life and to enjoy him.

"Happy is the man who has the God of Jacob to help him and who depends on the Lord his God." Ps. 146:5

A is for achievement. Not everyone achieves his full potential while at Montreat. But our prayer is that you grow in favor with God and man.

"Stay always within the boundaries where God's love can reach and bless you." Jude 21

Tis for trust. "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. These words are good advice for any stage of your life. Take them with you and let them become the cornerstone of your life."

"He who dwells in the shadow of the Most High, who abides in the shadow of the Almighty, will say to the Lord, 'My refuge and my fortress; my God, in whom I trust'."
Ps. 91:1-2

FACULTY AND STAFF

ADMINISTRATION

Dr. Silas M. Vaughn (left) is the president of Montreat-Anderson College. His main duties are those of implementing the policies adopted by the Board of Trustees, and of administering the affairs of the college. Half of his time is spent in Montreat, while the other half is spent off-campus raising funds for the college.

For years Dr. Vaughn has served Montreat-Anderson well. This is almost twice as long as Time magazine indicates most college presidents persevere in their positions!

Dr. E. Lee Secrest (bottom left) has served as Dean of Academic Affairs for two years. He is mainly concerned with planning the academic curricula and with faculty development.

Says Dr. Secrest, "Montreat-Anderson is an outstanding institution, and I'll do my best to make it even better."

Dr. C. Larry Wilson (bottom right) has been "Dean" to Montreat students for 20 years. Dean Wilson's duties include supervising all student activities, coordiating resident life, and disciplining students.

Dean Wilson says he is very excited about the new student center. He feels it will be a great asset to the college in the coming years.

Administration

Dr. Calvin C. Thielman (right) is known as "Calvin" to everyone, from the president of the college to the 3-year-old faculty child. He has served as chaplain of Montreat-Anderson for about two decades.

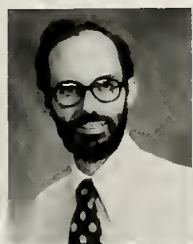

Calvin would say his job is to take each student he encounters a step or two toward Christ, in whatever way he can. This may be in directly sharing the Gospel of Jesus Christ, or helping a student prepare to lead a hall Bible study.

Walter Hall (below) plays an important, but uncelebrated, role in the life of Montreat-Anderson College. As the business manager he supervises billing, oversees the repairs in the dorms, and generally keeps the college in the red.

Williard Sessler, (lower right) is another unsung hero of Montreat-Anderson College. His official title is "Director of Development-/Church Relations." Mr. Sessler keeps the college ideals in mind — and in progress. His job is to keep the college well-endowed financially and with the prayers of support people.

ORGANIZATIONS

The Best Of Fellowship

SGA

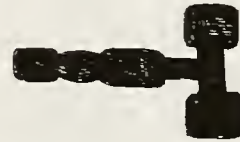

Every Monday morning at the early hour of 7:15, a group of Montreat-Anderson students known as the Student Government would gather in the private dining room to pray. They prayed for specific students' needs, concerns of the campus, and the activities of the upcoming week. This weekly prayer breakfast was one of the many activities that the M-AC Student Government Association sponsored.

SGA also organized a blood drive each semester, and a "Love Feast" which was held December 11.

All in all, it was SGA's goal to address the needs of the students and to look after everyone's well-being. Thanks, SGA!

Student Government president Lucy Pasquier

All at one time! The many busy students who comprise the SGA.

Wilderness And Conservation

Wilderness and Conservation is a new group on campus this year. Headed by Ben Fortsen, this club is dedicated to enjoying God's creation and preserving it. With this attitude they participate in various activities such as French Broad River Clean Up Day and rock-climbing — just for fun!

The Student Christian Association is a long-standing organization. Its leaders are committed to lifting Christ up, and presenting Him to the student body in a clear way. To this and SCA sponsors the Vespers worship time, discipleship groups, outreach ministries and the Student Foreign Missions Fellowship.

The weekend movies, dances, and concerts did not just "happen." They were the work of the Student Activities Committee. The purpose of the group was to make possible the activities on campus that were not associated with academics. But these, too, were part of our Montreat-Anderson education.

Honor Council

Honor Council at M-AC is an important part of our lives in the disciplinary sense. These people are understanding but firm students, and their objective opinion means alot as they strive to uphold the principles this college deems important for productive lives as Christian students.

Phi Theta Kappa's chapter at M-AC is an honorable organization on campus. The excellence in academics and overall citizenship these members uphold make them an important asset to life on campus.

Phi Theta Kappa

Alethia

Just about every Wednesday afternoon the Alethia staff can be seen hard at work upstairs in the student center. Incidentally, all of their hard work has certainly paid off as we have one of the best newspapers ever. They have even been offered the opportunity to enter the Alethia in an area school newspaper competition. With Mindy Maiden as Alethia's able and dedicated editor, our school's source of new and exciting information is a success.

DICTIONARY

Agape

"Agape" is Greek for Love, which is the perfect name for a book of this type and for a group of this nature. The yearbook staff works very hard every year to bring the students a memoir of their year at school. Love is synonymous of Montreat, of the students and faculty, and of the work that the Agape staff puts in to their book. We hope that this is the best book ever.

Choir

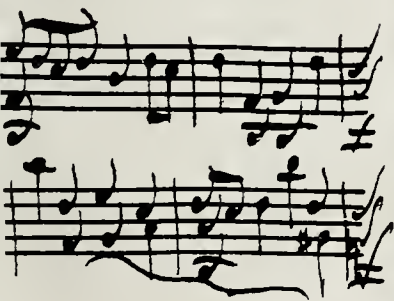

Tempo di Bore

The M-AC choir, under the able direction of Mr. Ed Carwithen, was found singing all styles of music throughout the school year.

The choir kicked off the year with a weekend retreat. Later they began to practice for a big night — singing with the Asheville Symphony and other area colleges. They provided some entertainment for Parents' Weekend, and also sponsored a beautiful Madrigal Dinner on December 1.

Handbells

The Handbell Choir was a small group of six people who met every Wednesday morning after chapel. The music they mastered was an inspiration to everyone who heard it.

Christmas was a busy time for the ringers as they played in chapel and for churches around the area.

Although the group of ringers was small, the ministry to the campus and community was great.

TRADITIONS ... Homecoming '84

TRADITIONS . . . Homecoming '84

Each year, Homecoming is an exciting event. And this year was no exception. Everyone had a wonderful time catching up on news with returning alumni, and getting involved in all of the weekend activities planned for everyone to enjoy. The Homecoming Dance, held in Anderson Auditorium, was fun for everyone, and the announcement of our 1984 Homecoming Queen was the highlight of the evening. This year, Queen candidates included Mary Bishop and her escort Andy Barinowski, Dori Claus and her escort Hap Newell, Jan Davis and her escort from home, and our 1984 Queen, Carla Newman and her escort Danny Hardesty. Maid of Honor Candidates included Michele Foster and escort James Tuten, Wendy Triplett and her escort Dan Bower, Lorie Hightower and her escort from home, and our 1984 Maid of Honor Amy Tomion and her escort from home, Jerald Grey.

A FAMILY MAN

In an environment where students receive a quality education within a committed Christian community, the faculty and administration strive to know each student by name and personality."

A "PEOPLE PERSON"

A HARD WORKER

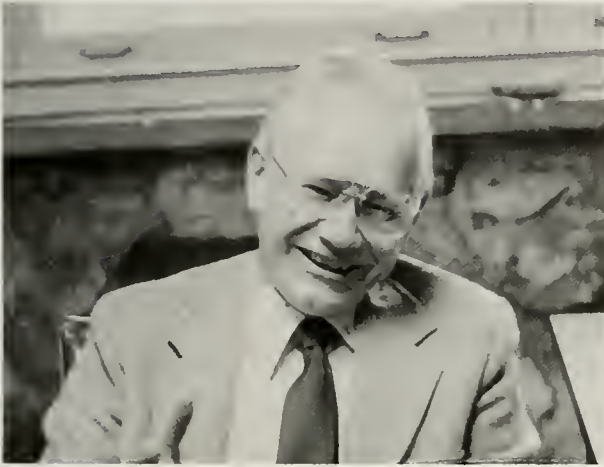

A GOOD SPORT!

AN EVANGELICAL CHRISTIAN

The 1984-85 AGAPE IS A SALUTE TO YOU, DR. SILAS M. VAUGHN

A Word From Anne Cromartie, Assistant Dean Of Students

"Over the past fourteen years President Vaughn has led Montreat-Anderson College through some critically difficult years. His financial expertise and knowledge about business management have been a great asset to the college. We are grateful for his fund raising ability, his sincere interest in students and his leadership in acquiring our new athletic field and campus center."

"Dean" Wilson Has Word Of Praise For Dr. Vaughn . . .

"A college president has to keep a very busy schedule. President Vaughn does that, but he makes sure there is time for the students. He knows the students, knows where they are from, and in many cases he knows their kinfolks. His concern for the students, his sincere effort to make their experience at Montreat-Anderson College a good and successful one, and his warm and friendly way with people are several of the many fine qualities we admire and appreciate in our President."

Calvin Thielman, Long-Time Associate, Says,

Those of us who know and love Montreat-Anderson College also know the severe demands that are placed on the president of a smaller church-related school. Administration, fund raising and future-planning all occupy his time and absorb his energy. For almost 14 years Dr. Vaughn has borne that burden and assumed that task. At Montreat one may see the physical growth in college facilities, but behind the scene is the ever-present task of raising money for buildings, salaries and scholarships. I am glad the editors have dedicated this volume in respect and appreciation for the hard work President Vaughn has done and continues to do in making Montreat-Anderson a growing Christian college.

Dr. E. Lee Secrest . . . Academic Dean, Says Of Vaughn:

"Montreat-Anderson College is most fortunate to have the productive Christian leadership of President Silas M. Vaughn. During his 13-plus years here he has demonstrated a genuine love for the college and has utilized his significant experience and knowledge to improve all areas of our school. He has a personal interest in every student, faculty member and administrator, and works constantly to improve the effectiveness of all college programs."

If you could only know of all the hard work and long hours that so many people have contributed to the making of this year's Agape, you would certainly appreciate the meaning of this special book. I would like to offer a very warm and heart-felt Thank-you to the following people whose dedication and patience have made the Agape come to life.

To the staff . . . please always remember that I didn't sleep through another meeting (how could I when you guys would never let me forget about that!) And thanks for putting up with 15 minute meetings that accomplished nothing but to prove how disorganized I can be. Jon and Andy — you guys are sweethearts. Thanks for putting up with me and for sticking to it. Stanley and Laurene — I can't tell you how much your work on the "Day-before-the-deadline" helped. Thank-you so much for your time and dedication. Thanks also to Lisa, Robbie, Priscilla, Libby, Karen, and everyone else who contributed of their talents — it couldn't have been done without you.

To my wonderful Photographers . . . you guys are absolutely the greatest. Mark, John, Keith, and Danny, what can I say? I will never ask you to take another picture for me again. And if you dare to believe that one, you are incredibly naive. But I love you anyway.

To the infamous James Cline . . . I see you got out of here while you were still awake! Thank-you so much for the many extra hours you gave to the staff. I say this with all of the honesty I have inside my weary body . . . this book would never have made it to the press without you. I am forever grateful.

To Mrs. A . . . Thanks for all your help in keeping me organized. You are an incredible lady.

To Richard and Lanon . . . Thank-you for allowing me to take so much of your time with Mama. I doubt the apartment will ever be the same.

To President and Mrs. Vaughn . . . Thank-you for your contribution of the "Montreat" prose in the first section. And for your cooperation, Mrs. Vaughn, with the Dedication page. I hope you are pleased.

To Portia . . . I can't believe its finally over. We did it!! I'll never forget the time we have spent together working on yearbook and talking about guys. Those times are special to me. Thanks for having faith in me. Also, your artwork is incredible. Absolutely incredible.

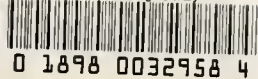

And last of all, Thanks to my very best friends; Jennifer, Missy, Mary John, Emily, Punkin', and Dori, (otherwise known as the Six Pack and various other variations) . . . for all the times I had to say, "I can't go. I have Yearbook.", for being patient with me, and for all of your expert advice about what should go in and what should be left out. You guys made this book worth the time.

I pray that this Yearbook will be as special to the entire student body as it is to me, and I hope that the pictures and activities shown on these few pages will forever bring back good memories of the times we have all spent together. Friends are friends forever . . .
